

GAINS BUT TWO VOTES AS YET

Stephenson Now Nineteen; So Is Esch--Lenroot Drops Behind--Cooper The Same.

SLIGHT CHANGE IN VOTES TODAY

Caucuses Show No Breaking Of Any Of The Candidates Forces--Deadlock Is Still In Force In Both Houses.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., April 18.—Assent-blyman Palmer, a colored member, joined the ranks of Isaac Stephenson this noon in the Wisconsin senatorial contest.

This was the only change of any possible significance today. The vote in joint convention of the senate and assembly today was as follows: Cooper, 18; Esch, 19; Hatten, 16; Lenroot, 15; Stephenson, 19; Baensch, 6; Hudnall, 1; Whitehead, 1; Sanborn, 1; Thompson (social democrat), 1; Rummell (social democrat), 5; Bird, (democrat), 24.

Compared with yesterday's vote this is an apparent gain of two for Stephenson, being the accession of Palmer and the presence of Bancroft today, who was absent yesterday.

Cooper gained and lost one--Norcross, absent yesterday, coming back; and Lockney being absent today.

Lenroot lost Berg, who temporarily switched to Sanborn.

Carl D. Thompson received the vote of the social democratic nominee, Senator Rummell, who had been voting blank.

Each Lead.

After the twelfth ballot in the republican caucus last evening Esch, the La Crosse candidate moved up to the nineteen notch, leading by one vote. Stephenson had dropped to seventeen, Lenroot and Cooper were both eighteen, Hatten, sixteen, Winkler 3, Baensch 5, and Hudnall 7. There were several of the members absent who have voted for Lenroot, Cooper, and Stephenson, so that the totals would probably have been a tie for these gentlemen with Esch had they been present.

Is in His Bed in the Tombs Prison—Expert with Him Two Hours Last Night.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, April 18.—It became known today that Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe, one of the alienists who testified for the defense in the recent trial of Harry K. Thaw for murder, spent two hours with Thaw in his cell in the Tombs last night. A. R. Thaw had remained in bed yesterday morning until nine o'clock and only arose to see his counsel when it was said he might go to the hospital ward. It is said at the prison Peabody summoned Jelliffe to attend Thaw because Dr. McGuire, the regular Tombs physician, is suffering from a slight attack of tonsillitis.

ECKELS' DEATH WILL PREVENT BUILDING

Proposed Road From Kenosha to Wisconsin Summer Resorts May Not Be Built Now.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Kenosha, Wis., April 18.—Death has again halted work on the Chicago, Kenosha, Milwaukee & Lake Geneva Electric Railway which was building a line from Chicago to Milwaukee in the summer resort districts east of Janesville. Jas. H. Eckels, who died suddenly in Chicago this week, was the financial backer of the line, and is said to have owned 90 per cent of the capital stock. He financed the whole railway. About ten years ago, Alex. Clarke, a wealthy resident of Evanston, Ill., started to buy the right of way for the railway. A few years later he was found dead of heart disease. The line was tied up for several years, but later the affairs were turned over to Volney Foster of Evanston, who was famous as the "Father of the Sheridan Drive." Mr. Foster was a native of Jefferson county. A year later Mr. Foster died suddenly, and after another long delay, Mr. Eckels took hold of the line. He was a former comptroller of the currency.

ETHEL ROCKEFELLER BRIDE OF MARCELLUS H. DODGE

Wedding Unites Millions To Millions, But Was Love Match Pure And Simple—Miss Rockefeller Niece Of John D.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] New York, April 18.—Miss Ethel G. Rockefeller was married this afternoon to Marcellus Hartley Dodge at the Rockefeller home in Fifth avenue. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockefeller and niece of John D. Rockefeller. The bridegroom is a son of the late Norman W. Dodge and grandson of the late Marcellus Hartley. Though the marriage is one of millions to millions it is understood to have been a love match pure and simple, as the young people have known each other since childhood.

For two hours before the ceremony crowds began to gather in front of the Rockefeller mansion and the services of a number of police were brought into requisition to keep the sidewalks and the roadway clear. For a considerable time there was nothing to reward the patience of the crowd. One of the first carriages to arrive contained the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stiles, of St. Thomas church, who was to perform the ceremony. Then in rapid succession rode up the handsome equipages with the invited guests. These were mostly relatives and close personal friends of the two families. Though it was designed to have the wedding strictly private, owing to Mr. Dodge being in mourning, there were no fewer than one hundred guests present.

The wedding was performed in the spacious drawing-room of the mansion. The room was tastefully though not elaborately decorated. The mantel pieces, windowsills, and curved nooks of the drawing-room were banked with bridal roses, Easter lilies and lilies of the valley. A string orchestra stationed on the opposite side of the main hall burst forth in a soft sweet melody as the bridal party descended the stairs.

The bride entered the wedding parlor on the arm of her father. Others included in the family party were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Parmelee Prentice and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCormick.

The Bridal Gown.

The bride gown was rich and simple, white satin with a long train. Fine point lace enriched the waist. The only ornament worn was a pearl and diamond brooch. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The Episcopal marriage service was used, occupying scarcely more than a quarter of an hour. The bride had as her maid of honor Miss Anna Bush.

Bride and Groom.

Young Mr. Dodge is estimated to be worth anywhere from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000. He inherited this vast estate from his grandfather, the late Marcellus Hartley, who made his millions in the Hartley Arms Company. Mr. Dodge attended Columbia University, where he was extremely popular. After his graduation he immediately set himself to the details of his grandfather's business and soon he was as familiar with the workings of the big factory at Bridgeport as he had been with his college studies. Ever since his youth he has been active in U. S. C. A. work and recently he has contributed liberally in aid of the social settlements on the East Side.

MUST STAND TRIAL FOR BRUTAL TRIPLE MURDER

Letter Revealed Whereabouts Of Suspect, And Capture Followed---Circumstantial Evidence Convincing.

Middletown, N. Y., April 18.—Charles Henry Rogers, alias Charles H. Carpenter, who was arrested last week at Los Angeles, Cal., will be returned here to stand trial for one of the most fiendish crimes ever committed in New York state. The local authorities believe they have sufficient evidence to hold him for the murder of Willis Olney, Frederick Olney and Alice Ingerlick, who were murdered in their home near here on the night of Oct. 6, 1905.

The crime aroused the whole of Orange county. Many clues were followed, but none led to anything conclusive. Investigation by the police made it certain that the triple murder was planned with a fiendish, diabolical ingenuity that precluded mistakes or possible detection. It is still unknown whether robbery or revenge, or both, was the motive for the triple murders.

Frederick and Willis Olney, who were prosperous farmers, were shot to death in the woods back of their farm house. Mrs. Georgia Ingerlick, their housekeeper, was found in the barn unconscious from a blow on the head fracturing her skull and the body of her daughter, Alice, aged nine years, was found in the cellar of the Olney home. The discovery of a bloody towel on which the assassins wiped their hands after killing the little nine-year-old girl, which was found in front of the house on the morning after the murder, exemplified the cold-blooded manner in which the crime was committed.

The authorities were convinced that the murderers were personally known to both the Olney brothers and Mrs. Ingerlick. This theory was based on the supposition that the murderers returned to the Olney house to slay Mrs. Ingerlick and her daughter, because they feared that if the murder of the Olneys was discovered it was possible that they would be suspected.

It was believed that Mrs. Ingerlick alone held the key to the identity of the assassins, and for days the officers watched her bedside awaiting her return to consciousness. But when she finally recovered from her wounds her mind was a blank concerning the tragedy and, in fact, she never fully recovered her reason. Baffled along this line, the authorities set to work in other directions to run down the murderers. Certain relatives of the murdered persons were suspected but they easily proved alibis.

It was a considerable time after the crime before suspicion became fastened upon Rogers. Suspicion finally centered upon him, it is said, through the jealousy of his wife. He is said to have been friendly with Mrs. Ingerlick. It is thought that he learned from her that the Olney brothers had in their possession $5,000 cash and some valuables. These were taken by the murderer. After the murders Rogers disappeared from Middletown. The Pinkertons searched in vain for some trace of him until the latter part of January last, when a letter which gave a clue to his whereabouts in California.

POLICE ARRESTED
WILLIAM O'NEILLJANESVILLE BOY IS IN SERIOUS TROUBLE IN CHICAGO.

CHARGE OF MURDER MADE

Alleged That He Caused the Death of Alexander J. Peterkin, a Sanitary Canal Inspector.

William O'Neill, who was born and brought up in Janesville, is under arrest charged with having caused the death of Alexander J. Peterkin, an inspector for the sanitary board on the works at Lockport, which are being built by Hayes Bros., contractors of this city. O'Neill was arrested at French Lick Springs late yesterday,
where he was working for a railroad contractor, and will probably be brought to Chicago to answer to the serious charge brought against him.
While Peterkin has been in a serious condition for some days, it was not until after he died yesterday morning that O'Neill was located and arrested.

The Trouble
As far as can be learned O'Neill,
who is a foreman for the Hayes Bros., had many serious altercations with both the engineer who was working for the sanitary board and Peterkin, who was an inspector at the stone crusher. At the request of the engineer who estimated the amount and quality of the work done, O'Neill was removed from the cement work to the stone crusher and then began trouble with Peter-kin. The story as told is that Peter-kin implied that clay was being allowed to run through the crusher, which O'Neill resented. Words followed and it is alleged that Peter-kin hit O'Neill first.

Awful Drubbing
All accounts seem clear upon the fact that O'Neill gave Peterkin an awful drubbing and that Peterkin was taken to his home badly injured. The engineer in charge demanded O'Neill be discharged and at the same time discharged Peterkin. This was on February 22. O'Neill came to Janesville for a visit about this time and then went to French Lick, where he had obtained work with a contracting firm laying a railroad. Meanwhile Peter-kin recovered enough to be put at work again, and remained nearly one month, when he was forced to quit,
and erysipelas set in.

Threats Made in Letters
While he lay injured in his house
Peterkin is alleged to have received two letters threatening him with death if he did not at once sever his connection with the sanitary district.
The letters were written in red ink
and signed with a skull and cross bones.

Mrs. Peterkin gave the letters to Coroner Hoffman, who sent them to Capt. O'Brien, chief of the detective bureau. Coroner Hoffman postponed the inquest, which was begun yesterday, until April 27. The letters, which were mailed at Lockport, the first being dated March 12 and the second March 26, read as follows:

"Third and last warning: Peter-kin—We have been watching you for the last week and have not seen
you, but we will get your miserable carcass sooner or later, you. We will get you as the fox got the chicken, in the night.
"Caution: Two Face Slink Peter-kin—You had a letter of warning to leave these parts last week. You have not done so, so now we will at once or regret our warning."
Begin Search
Captain O'Brien of the Chicago defective bureau immediately communicated with City Marshall Appleby and asked him to locate O'Neill, who was thought to be in Janesville. This clue proved false and yesterday a second telegram was received asking that another search be made as Peterkin was dead. Later word was received that O'Neill had been arrested in French Lick, where he was working.
He has relatives in the city and many friends who will be sorry to learn of his trouble.

Mr. Hayes' Story
Dennis Hayes in speaking of the O'Neill affair this morning said that the reports appeared to be much exaggerated. That Peterkin did not seem to be much injured after the trouble which took place at the stone crusher and which was witnessed by five Italian and one Pole who could understand English. That O'Neill was laid off by the Hayes brothers to avoid any trouble and that they found him work with another firm at French Lick. Peterkin was back at work for a month after the fight and it was only recently that he was taken ill. According to the story told by the Pole, Peterkin hit the first blow. The two men were evenly matched as to size and weight and O'Neill did not take any advantage of his opponent.

Telegraphed O'Neill
As soon as Mr. Hayes learned O'Neill was wanted for anything by the Chicago police he telephoned his

How to Start Off the Day
Students of Hygiene All Agree That the Right Kind of a Breakfast Is Essential.

Thinking people are giving more and more earnest thought as to how to start off each new day as vigorously as possible in the best possible physical and mental condition for the work of the day. It is an interesting question, and one which has attracted the attention of a host of the world's leading scholars and authors on hygiene and many different opinions have been written for the guidance of the people. On one point, at least, all are agreed. This is that the right kind of a breakfast is essential to perfect health. The breakfast without Malt-Vita, that delicious, crisp, vitalizing whole-wheat food.
In making Malt-Vita the whole of the wheat, after being cleaned, is thoroughly steamed and cooked in absolute purity and then mixed with maltose, which contains the starch of the wheat, and a powerful digesting agent,
which converts the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar. Maltose is great food and the weakest stomach digests and assimilates it without effort. After being rolled into thin, water-like flakes the malted wheat is baked under such intense heat that it comes from the ovens crisp and brown,
the most delicious, most healthful
ready to eat. All grocers, now 10 cents, brother Michael Hayes to send for him and to telephone the Chicago police he would be at their camp at Lockport when wanted. Mr. O'Neill has been employed by the Hayes Brothers for five years and is considered one of their best workmen. He has the trust and confidence of his employers and for the past two years has held important positions with them. In fact at the present time is only loaned to the other company subject to the needs of the Hayes Bros.

Will Help Him.

When asked if they would help
O'Neill in his present trouble Mr.
Hayes said this morning: "We certainly will. Billy O'Neill is one of our best men. He will have fair play if it is possible for him to secure it.
According to the story of the Pole,
who was an eye witness, Peterkin struck the first blow. I know nothing of the merits of the case but do not think O'Neill can be blamed. He has not touched a drop for two years and is a honest and faithful workman.
I am sorry such a thing should occur
to him but think he will come out all right."

MAYOR HEDDLES WILL
WIELD GAVEL TONIGHT

New City Council Will Assemble at City Hall at 7:30 O'Clock for Organization and Elections.

Tonight at half-past seven o'clock Mayor Stewart B. Heddles' gavel will fall in the council chamber, calling the new city administration to order for organization and the election of the various officers who are to be chosen at this time. The following aldermen will be seated in the semi-circle: W. H. Merritt and James W.
Clark from the first ward, George O.
Buchholz and John D. O'Hara from the second ward, Harry W. Brown and Fred S. Sheldon from the third ward,
John J. Sheridan and William C.
Rehfeld from the fourth ward, J. C.
Dulm and Arthur G. Jones from the fifth ward. After the mayor's message has been submitted and the standing committees have been appointed, the City Fathers will proceed to ballot for successors to W. H.
Merritt, as president of the council;
C. V. Kerch, as city engineer; Dr.
W. D. Merritt, as health commissioner;
James Sennett, as street commissioner; William H. Grove, as janitor of the city hall; and David Conger, John T. Comstock, Charles B. Conrad, August Lutz, and George T. Croft as assessors from the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th wards respectively. A large number of these officers will undoubtedly be named to succeed themselves,
but there will be a number of lively contests. Several local physicians, including the present efficient incument, are in the field for the office of health commissioner and it is understood that at least one aspirant will try to displace James Sennett, who has made such an excellent record as street commissioner. Of the old assessor, John Comstock, is at present in California and George Croft has taken charge of the stone crusher, so that at least two new men will have to be named. Aside from the organization and election it is not expected that any considerable amount of business will be brought before the meeting. Any chance floral offerings for the newly-elect should be sent to the city hall early in order that they may be suitably placed before the beginning of the session.

When the Cook Throws Things.

Suppose your cook is mad
Or bad
And makes your home life very sad:
Well, can't a cook more glad
Be had
By putting in a little AD?

There is gladness in her gladness when she's glad—

—and there's sadness in her sadness when she's sad—

—but the gladness of her gladness and the sadness of her sadness are no nothing to her madness when she's mad.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, April 18, 1867.—Stand-From Under. Mr. Cates Smith of Troy, N. Y., proposes to open a cheap price store next to Heimschutz's crockery store. He will hang his banner on the outer wall next Thursday.

Trade in Pigeons.—Quite a little trade is being carried on in some parts of this county in wild pigeons. They are taken in nets, packed in ice and shipped to New York by express, bringing a good price.

The building committee of the new Congregational church went to Chicago yesterday to look over churches in that city, with a view of selecting a plan for the one proposed to be erected by that society this coming year.

A Washington dispatch says that a movement is already on foot there, to organize an expedition to visit the newly acquired Russian possessions. Application for the use of government vessels in charge of naval officers will be made.

Baptist Sabbath School.—This school is now the most numerously attended of any in the city, numbering between three and four hundred, and probably averaging over three hundred. The two schools have been united and on pleasant Sabbath when the attendance is full, the necessity for hurrying up the new church edifice of this Society is strikingly apparent.

Before The Footlights.

It seems to be the opinion of the thousands of admirers of Geo. M. Cohan, that he never wrote a wittier or more entertaining play than "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway." The lines are said to fairly scintillate with humor while the situations, sometimes intensely melodramatic, at other times immensely funny are claimed to more than ever establish this young author as a past master in the original treatment of his subject. In "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway" he is said to have worked out many surprises from a dramatic standpoint, while in his characters he has drawn some new and original types. The two principal characters are played by Corinne and Scott Welch, while the supporting company is said to be fully up to the Klaw & Erlanger standard who are managing the tour.

will be seen last season's great success, the thrilling melodrama novelty, "No Mother to Guide Her," which Lillian Mortimer is again using as her starring vehicle this season. It tells a story of a young girl betrayed under promise of marriage, her child stolen from her and finding that death is preferable to her present condition, at this moment finds a friend true and steadfast in a girl of the streets who gives her that aid and comfort that is so valuable to a woman in her condition. This new found friend helps her to win the fight in the battle for existence and it is in this creature of the crowded tenements of the city that Miss Mortimer will, no doubt, add many friends to the host she has in this city.

"The Eye Witness," a new melodrama by the master builder of this style of plays, Lincoln J. Carter, will be the attraction at the Myers theatre Monday, April 22. The new play, which is in five acts, contains four wonderful mechanical scenic effects, each a distinct novelty entirely new in conception and design. The invention of daring mechanical effects, with the accompanying highly sensational scenes have made the name of Mr. Carter famous the world over. In "The Eye Witness" he has fairly outdone himself and has created a series of sensational surprises that are daring to the extreme, the kind that hold an audience in spellbound amazement. An unusually strong cast has been secured to present the play.

"Sucker Towns" Are Many.

Green Bay Gazette: "La Crosse's chief of police has declared that that city is the 'biggest sucker town' in the northwest." His opinion is based on the fact that gruffers of all descriptions, ply their trade with vim and success there. "La Crosse, however, need not feel that she is alone in the matter of being an easy mark for the gaming fraternity, for Wisconsin cities as a whole fail to escape to Jim than artists. No graft fails it properly worked and none is too thin surfaced to bring financial returns to their promoters.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST.

Generally fair tonight and Friday, not much change in temperature. Heavy snow is falling today over Nebraska, western Missouri, western Iowa and eastern Kansas, but the weather is mild and the damage to crops, fruits, etc., is problematic, but believed not to be great.

THE REMONSTRANCE

The Remonstrance is published by the Massachusetts Association Opposed to the Further Extension of Suffrage to Women. It expresses the views of women in Massachusetts, Maine, Rhode Island, New York, Illinois, Iowa, Oregon, Washington, and other states who believe that the great majority of their sex do not want the ballot, and that to force it upon them would not only be an injustice to women, but would lessen their influence for good and imperil the community. The Remonstrants ask a thoughtful consideration of their views in the interest of fair discussion.

It may seem a little peculiar that the old Bay state should be the leader in a movement of this kind, and yet the women engaged in it are very much in earnest. So much so that they are now fighting a movement for woman suffrage in the legislature.

Their views on the question are well expressed by Mrs. Shaw, president of the Massachusetts association, in an address recently delivered before a legislative committee, in which she said:

"We do not desire the rights of men. Neither do we wish to perform their duties. We rejoice that we are not called upon for military service. We do not desire to serve on juries, and we value highly our exemption from political strife and controversy. These are today our rights and privileges, and we ask you to guard them for us."

"Year after year some new attempt is made to secure some form of woman suffrage. Our association is composed of more than 12,000 women who have associated themselves together to resist such attempts."

"They are women of twenty-one years and upwards residing in 245 towns and villages from Berkshire to Cape Cod. They belong to all classes and conditions of life. Many of them are tax-paying women. Others are wage-earners, dependent on their daily labor of hand or brain. We unite in the belief that the change proposed would be injurious to women themselves and a misfortune for the state."

"The right to vote belongs now only to men. You cannot give it to the women who request it without imposing it on all women, whether they wish it or not."

"We are told how easy it is to deposit a ballot, as if nothing more were required. But the amendment to the constitution, which is asked for today, would introduce women to all the political controversies hitherto confined to men. They would be expected to attend town meetings, to study municipal problems and to be present at political caucuses."

"Women now stand outside politics. We are neither republicans nor democrats, and therefore our suggestions and requests in matters of education, charity, and general reform are welcomed and heeded. No suspicion arises that we have partisan ends to serve."

"Mrs. Shaw expresses the sentiment of the home-loving women of the country. The state which she represents has tested the experiment of woman suffrage, on the school question, and failed. There is no demand for an extension of the suffrage except on the part of a limited class of dissatisfied women."

CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA

While millions of Russian peasants are starving, and the heart of the Christian world is stirred in sympathy, the grand dukes of that benighted nation are reported to have contributed $7,500,000 from their private purses, for the construction of a new navy.

After recent experiences, the question very naturally arises, what particular use has Russia for any sort of a navy? What the nation needs vastly more than either an army or navy is reconstruction along the lines of self-government, and a better and more intelligent understanding among her own people.

The rank and file of the Russian army are seen, submitting to a bondage more galling than the most abject slavery. In the late war they represented human targets, defenseless and demoralized, because lacking the pride which love of country and patriotism inspires.

The Siberian contingency is another object lesson which points to national weakness, and the starving millions appeal to deaf ears in the land which they call home and from which they have a right to expect shelter and sympathy.

The nation is beset with internal strife, and unless it yields to the influences of a better civilization, it is doomed to fall apart, as the result of its own undoing. The money being spent for a navy should be spent for bread, and when the famine is stayed, the authorities should devise some plan for the permanent settlement of many questions which now disrupt and keep alive the fires of internal strife.

The strength of a nation is not measured by battleships and munitions of war, but rather by loyalty and love of country.

The state of Wisconsin suffers a loss in the retirement of Dean W. A. Henry, who for many years has been at the head of the Agricultural college. Mr. Henry belongs in a class by himself, and the state has occasion to congratulate itself on being favored with his services so long. He is a practical educator of pronounced type, and the young men who have been fortunate enough to enjoy his instruction, have much to show for it in the way of applied knowledge.

The legislature of Texas is a wild and woolly aggregation. Railroads are being regulated to the queen's taste, and life insurance companies are being driven from the field. While many of the western states are suffering from the same cause, Texas leads the procession. The country will breathe easier when these erratic law-makers adjourn.

One of the rural routes at Kenosha has been abandoned on account of poor roads, and other routes in the state are under discussion. There are several reasons why the state needs legislation on the road question.

The bed-sheet bill, which passed the assembly, is hung up in the senate. The bill provides that all hotels must furnish sheets eight feet long, and is the offspring of the Milwaukee man, Barker.

The Milwaukee Free Press argues that the best thing to do is to elect "Uncle Ike" for the short term, and let the people fight it out two years later. That might help some.

Agitation and erratic legislation may cause the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road to abandon their coast line project, west of Butte, Montana.

Its dollars to doughnuts that the man who thinks he can name Senator Spooner's successor, has another guess coming.

The third house at Madison is largely in evidence. A senatorial lobby is perfectly legitimate, but a railroad lobby is dangerous in the extreme.

The new council will be installed tonight with plenty of business in sight, and some reforms that need early attention.

A FEE OF $1500.

Some seven or eight years ago Dr. Richards was considering the matter of going to India with a dentist friend of his to practice dentistry in the city of Calcutta.

It was reported that an American dentist could make a big go of it over there.

Dr. Richards hesitated because of the fearful heat and finally located in Janesville.

The other man talked his brother into it and they actually went.

The other day Dr. Richards received a newspaper clipping describing in detail an officially engineered visit of the dentist to the Royal Amerer.

The dentist was gone two months from his office, traveled over 1000 miles with a royal mounted escort of forty horsemen and was treated like a prince.

He placed six gold fillings in the Amerer's mouth and brought home a fee of $1500 in gold.

It looks like he was doing fairly well over there.

That's probably the world's record as to dental fees.

Dr. Richards here in Janesville does not cater for big fees.

Reasonable prices and careful work have built up for him the largest dental practice in the city.

Try him for your next dental work.

APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT

IN WINIFRED FIFIELD SUIT

FROM DECISION DENYING MOTION TO SET ASIDE SERVICE OF COMPLAINT.

Against the Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co. for $25,000 Damages—Was Taken by Defendant's Counsel Today.

Attorney James D. Shaw of Milwaukee who is associated with Clark M. Rosser in the defense of the $25,000 damage action of Winifred Fifield vs. the Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co. for injuries sustained in a collision about a year ago, came to Janesville today to take an appeal to the supreme court from the decision of Judge Grimm in which the motion to set aside the service of the summons and complaint. When this motion was argued here some time ago the defendant company set up the claim that the legal documents in question were served on an assistant secretary and that inasmuch as such an officer of a corporation is not designated by the statute as a proper party for service of this nature, the proceeding was illegal and void. The defense maintained that if the party in question was indeed the assistant secretary, they had been given every reason to believe that he was the real secretary, that he had been performing the work of secretary, and that the company had repeatedly in the past gone to trial without question in cases where the notices had been similarly served. The court passed adversely on the motion on the latter grounds. Inasmuch as the suit was started very close to the margin of the one year after date allowed by law for serving a notice of injury or complaint, the point is a vital one. For, should the supreme court reverse Judge Grimm's decision, the damage action would have to be abandoned in accordance with the statute of limitations, which gives the injured party one year in which to serve notice, as aforesaid, and six years in which to bring the case to trial. Mr. G. Jeffris and Judge Charles Fifield are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Wright vs. Gehrke. Closing arguments were heard today in the action of John P. Wright vs. Paul Gehrke, et al. brought by the plaintiff to foreclose a mechanic's lien on a building in Spring Brook which was owned by the late Mrs. Gehrke. Attorney J. J. Cunningham and Fred Burpee are the counsel for the respective parties.

Barriage vs. Kennedy. Tomorrow the case of Barriage vs. Kennedy, an action similar to the above, will be tried.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

The court affirms the decision of the lower court with the exception of the auditors and treasurers will not be required to pay interest on the money. REAL BEARS ROMPED ABOUT KINDERGARTEN

In Third Ward School This Morning and Children Were Unafraid.

Awed at First by Officer Brown, Ephraim and Betsy, the two orphan black bears whose other was slain by the Indians in Sawyer county about three weeks ago and who are now waxing strong and hearty on "bottle treatment" in their den at City Marshal W. H. Appleby's office, were exhibited by request this morning at the Jefferson school kindergarten. Both of them objected vociferously to being packed in the small box in which they were shipped several weeks ago and paid no attention to the soothing words of their kind nurse, Officer John Brown, as they were driven through the streets of the city. The Misses Mary Jacobs, Josephine Treat, Charlotte Moutat, and Emma MacLean, who are in charge of the department, lined the three score and ten or more little people up in a circle and then the squealing surprise-box was opened. The lid had scarcely been lifted when the small Bruins, numbingly cold and undismayed, tumbled out and made a detour of the room, clambering through and under chairs, and paying but momentary attention to the timid caresses offered. The children who had at first been awestruck by the appearance of a policeman in their midst, quickly broke ranks and scrambled after them, the little girls exhibiting quite as much enterprise and daring in handling the queer pets, as the boys. Presently Miss Luella Hill brought the first grade pupils in to see the menagerie and they were quickly followed by Miss Sarah Hickey and the third grade scholars. Ephraim and Betsy continued to acquit themselves creditably in the presence of the large audience, scratching nobody and making no attempt to bite the numerous fingers and thumbs which found their way into the capacious little maws. But they cried bitterly and kicked and clawed some when they were put back into the little wooden cage. As the caravan departed the little people chanted in chorus: "Good-bye, bears!"

WAS IN THE HOUSE MONDAY EVE LAST

Beautiful Shaw Residence in Eau Claire Which Was Destroyed by Fire Tuesday.

In the telegraphic news in last night's issue of the Gazette was a notice of the destruction by fire of the beautiful home of Eugene Shaw of Eau Claire. Harry Garbutt, traveling salesman for the Shaw Lumber Co. engaged the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw on Monday and says it hardly seems possible to him that they have since suffered the loss of their home. It was the largest and finest residence in Eau Claire and was built at a cost of upwards of $100,000, being insured for $30,000. The home was situated at Shawtown, the immediate suburb of Eau Claire, and was built of the choicest Wisconsin hard woods, the lumber being procured and sawed by their own mill. The walls and ceiling were beautifully paneled in the most beautiful hard woods. It is presumed the fire was caused by painters who were using gasoline blowers to soften and remove the paint on the outside of the house. Mr. Shaw expressed to Mr. Garbutt on Monday his dislike and fear of the gasoline blowers, but did not anticipate the loss he has sustained.

BELOIT RESIDENTS TO TEST FRANCHISE

Those Who Do Not Want Street Railway to Fight It in the Courts Soon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Beloit, Wis., April 18.—The property-owners who object to having a city railway hold a meeting last night and decided to take the matter into court. They will probably begin proceedings to secure damages and also to get an injunction against the laying of tracks. Mr. A. A. Jackson of Janesville will represent them. Probably the action will be filed in the circuit court within the next week. Their decision is based on the opinion of the attorney general who says that property-owners own to the middle of the street and that they may recover damages the same from a street railway as steam.

AGREED ON PRICES FOR SUGAR BEETS

American Society of Equity and Beet Company Make Settlement.

The state organization of the American Society of Equity and the four sugar companies in Wisconsin have reached an agreement regarding the price to be paid for sugar beets and every subordinate union in the state will receive notice to that effect immediately. The first notice of the agreement to be read at a meeting was read before the Lafayette union at its meeting at Chippewa Falls Monday night.

The state officials of the A. S. of E. held a conference with President Wagner of the Chippewa Sugar Co. and representative of the United States Sugar Co. at Madison, Rock County Sugar Co., Janesville, and the Wisconsin Sugar Co. at Menomonee Falls. The beet raising question was thoroughly discussed, the sugar companies proving to the satisfaction of the A. S. of E. officers that paying $6 per ton for beets was out of the question.

The sugar companies' offer as accepted is the flat price of $5 per ton for beets and a further offer of a test contract based on $4.50 for beets tested 12 per cent with 25 cents for each additional 1 per cent. Both flat and test contracts provide for an additional 25 cents per ton for beets delivered at the factories after Nov. 1.

The result of the agreement will mean harmony in the great industry that is bound to make Wisconsin famous as a sugar state. The contracts are to be written by secretaries of local unions who may canvass the members for acreage and as a compensation for their services will receive from the factories 75 cents per contract. After the crop is harvested five cents for every ton of beets harvested will be paid into the union treasury.

Levi Armstrong. The remains of the late Levi Armstrong, who was killed under a C. M. & St. P. switch engine Tuesday morning, were shipped to Rock Bridge, Richland county, Wis., at 8:15 o'clock this morning and after funeral services interment will be made there.

KAHN HELD NOT GUILTY BY COURT

JUDGE ANDERSON INTERRUPTS TRIAL TO ORDER VERDICT.

HOLDS HE WAS HONEST

Promoter of Cash Buyers' Union Is Acquitted of Charge of Using Mails to Defraud at Chicago.

Chicago, April 18.—Julius Kahn, organizer of the Cash Buyers' Union First National Cooperative society, was acquitted Wednesday of the charge of using the mails to defraud. Judge Anderson interrupted the taking of testimony and gave the case to the jury, with the remark that if a verdict of guilty were returned he would set it aside.

Thereupon the jury, without leaving the jury box, returned a verdict of not guilty.

Assistant District Attorney Fletcher Dobyns was cross-examining Kahn when the climax came. Judge Anderson had been pacing up and down the floor behind his bench, and turned suddenly toward the attorneys.

Judge Orders a Verdict.

"I don't think I'll hear any more testimony, gentlemen," he said, "and there is no use of my hearing arguments, either. My mind is made up in this case."

"The government has charged the defendant with conceiving a scheme to defraud purchasers of preferred stock and with making false statements in the literature he sent through the mails to attract purchasers. I am satisfied the prosecution has not established beyond the necessary reasonable doubt the guilt of this defendant."

"This is not the first man who has had dreams, and not the first man who has failed in his attempts to make his dreams become realities. The failure of a man to accomplish what he has attempted, if it be honest endeavor, is not a crime."

"If the jury should return a verdict of guilty I should set it aside, so you may do away with the necessity for this formality and return a verdict of not guilty."

Kahn's Large Ambition.

Kahn reorganized the old Cash Buyers' union, by which he has been employed as manager, into the Cash Buyers' Union First National Cooperative society, and as president of the concern sent all over the country prospectuses and various kinds of literature in an effort, he maintained, to establish the biggest mail order business in the world on a cooperative plan. Certain dissatisfied stockholders forced the concern into bankruptcy.

An investigation was made by postal inspectors, who concluded that Kahn had been promoting a fraud. He was arrested and brought to trial in February of this year before United States District Judge Humphrey. The jury disagreed. The second trial was begun before Judge Anderson on April 5.

"It was maintained by the defense that the literature sent out by Kahn was not untruthful, and that he had never had intentions of defrauding anybody. Kahn has contended that the majority of the shareholders favored him at all times and were desirous of promoting the organization, as far as possible."

Bad Blaze at Akron, O.

Akron, O., April 18.—The five-story building of Roebach & Allen was practically destroyed by fire Wednesday night and the wholesale and retail hardware store of the same firm was totally destroyed. Exchange: It is announced that Harry Thaw has unceremoniously dropped Attorney Delmas, and placed Attorney O'Reilly in full charge of his case. And the chances are that Mr. Delmas is more than half glad to be relieved, especially as it is now claimed that Thaw insisted on running his own case during the recent trial, in utter disregard of the wishes and advice of his counsel.

MR. HOLMAN SPOKE TRUTH.

Jerome Says He Received No Information From Evelyn's Mother.

New York, April 18.—Although District Attorney Jerome returned to his office from a visit to his home in Lakeville, Conn., Wednesday, no move has yet been made toward an application for Thaw's release. Daniel O'Reilly of Thaw's counsel, called on Mr. Jerome in the afternoon, but he said that the matter of bail was not mentioned. Mr. Jerome, in speaking of the case, said that his position is unchanged from what it was immediately after the jury reported a disagreement, namely, that he would oppose in every possible way the release of Thaw on bail.

When questioned about the signed statement issued by Mrs. Nesbit Holman, mother of Mrs. Harry K. Thaw, Mr. Jerome said he had read it. "I can't vouch for some of the things said by Mrs. Holman because I do not know about them," said the district attorney, "but I can assure you that when she said that she furnished the district attorney no information for use in connection with the trial of Thaw she spoke the truth. Mrs. Holman never gave us any information."

Clifford W. Hartridge, Wednesday night, after A. Russell Peabody had had a talk with Harry K. Thaw in the Tombs prison, made public the following letter:

"Messrs. Hartridge and Peabody: 'Dear Sirs:—Please continue as my attorneys of record.'"

"Very sincerely, 'HARRY K. THAW.'"

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., April 18.—Having reached the statutory age limit for active service, Brig. Gen. Alfred C. Markley was placed on the retired list today. Few officers of the army have seen longer or more varied service than has Gen. Markley. A native of Doylestown, Pa., he entered as a private in the 25th Pennsylvania Infantry during the first year of the civil war. He served in the operations before Richmond, Va., was present at the siege and capture of Petersburg and engaged in the pursuit of Gen. Lee's army to the surrender at Appomattox. During the summer of 1865 he was with the "Army of Observation," which was sent to drive the French army out of Mexico. Then came several years of Indian fighting on the frontier. In the war with Spain he commanded a regiment at the battle of San Juan Hill. After the war he was in command of Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., and Vancouver Barracks, Wash. In 1899 he went to take command of Fort McDowell, the Philippines, returning in 1902 to the vacancy in the grade of brigadier general resulting from the retirement of Gen.
